

Morning News Script

0730 hrs

6th October 2024

<><><><><><>

Prime Minister Narendra Modi said every decision, resolution and dream of the Union Government is dedicated to Viksit Bharat – developed India. Mr. Modi said that it is necessary to make cities like Mumbai and Thane to be future-ready to achieve the goal of Viksit a developed India. The Prime Minister was yesterday inaugurating and laying the foundation stone for various projects worth over 32 thousand 800 crore rupees in Thane district of Maharashtra. He said that these developmental projects will also create new employment opportunities along with the growth of industries. The Prime Minister earlier visited Washim where he disbursed PM Kisan Samman Nidhi to 9.5 crore farmers of the country and initiated several development projects.

<><><><><><>

Advisor for Labour and Employment, Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Moatoshi Longkumer has emphasized on the importance of job fairs in bridging the gap between talent and opportunity. Inaugurating a job fair at Don Bosco, Dimapur, yesterday, he said that job fair connects talent with opportunities, giving businesses the chance to discover individuals who can bring fresh perspectives. The job fair was organized by Integrated Development Association and Don Bosco Job Placement Network in collaboration with the Ministry of Labour and Employment, National Career Service Centre, NCSC for Differently Abled Dimapur, NCSC SC and ST Kohima, Employment Exchange Dimapur, and Model Career Centre Dimapur. Mr. Longkumer lauded the initiative for bringing together employers and job seekers, fostering a platform for career growth. He urged job seekers to approach the event with a sense of purpose and commitment. The Advisor stressed on the importance of a healthy employer-employee relationship in building successful organizations. Mr. Longkumer also encouraged employers to focus on creating supportive environments where employees could flourish and, in turn, contribute to the company's success.

<><><><><><>

Wildlife Division Dimapur, Wokha Forest Division and Doyang Plantation Division, in collaboration with Eco-Warriors, celebrated Wildlife Week at the Community Hall, Forest colony in Wokha, yesterday. Speaking at the programme, Wildlife Warden, Wildlife Division Dimapur, Tokaho Kinimi emphasized on practical conservation efforts to protect Nagaland's rich biodiversity. Stressing on the need for coexistence, he reaffirmed the commitment to preserving wildlife. Mr. Kinimi said that all living beings are interconnected in the ecosystem. DFO Wokha, Suman WS Sivachar, said that the key causes on human-animal conflicts are due to human superiority, ignorance and habited destruction. Stating that only four per cent of the global mammal biomass is wildlife, the DFO called for urgent conservation efforts. The celebration was held under the theme Wildlife Conservation through Co-existence.

<><><><><><>

One day Mega Legal Services Camp cum Training and Capacity Program was organized by the Longleng District Legal Services Authority, LDLSA in collaboration with Nagaland State Climate Change Cell, Nagaland Science and Technology Council and the Department of Science and Technology at Tamlu Town ADC office premises yesterday. Chief Judicial Magistrate and Secretary LDLSA Kumdilog Kessen said that this is the first mega Legal Service Camp in Tamlu Town where the various Government Departments have come together to provide services and benefits to the public. Delivering a short speech, Tamlu EAC, Mopling Phom enlightened the public on the importance to know legal rights and service available. During the programme, over 100 beneficiaries received services from various departments including, Agriculture, NST, Medical and Science and Technology departments.

<><><><><><>

Youth department of Wakching Town Baptist Church yesterday voluntarily conducted a cleanliness drive at the campus of New Model Science College, Wakching. The college acquired a fresh look with the efforts of nearly 100 youth members participating in the social work. The college which is newly established under Nagaland Higher Education department is active with only seven students and nine teaching staff and Non-teaching staff.

<><><><><><>