

NORTH EAST NEWS BULLETIN

DATED:- 22.10.2024

1. Prime Minister Narendra Modi says India taking lead in shaping global future.
2. On Police Commemoration Day yesterday, Prime Minister Narendra Modi honours bravery and sacrifice of the country's police personnel.
3. Joining rest of the country, Nagaland observes Police Commemoration Day.
4. South West Garo Hills District Police in Meghalaya observes Police Commemoration Day to honour ultimate sacrifice of police personnel in the line of duty.
5. Several villages in Mawhati constituency in Meghalaya celebrate approval of funds for road blacktopping.
6. The army, in collaboration with the Government of Arunachal Pradesh and North Eastern Electric Power Corporation Limited organizes cycling expedition from Namsai to Namti.

PM

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has said that India is taking the lead in shaping the global future. He mentioned that the country is advancing on an unprecedented scale in all sectors. Addressing the World Summit organized by a private media outlet, the Prime Minister noted that while the world recognizes AI as artificial intelligence, India has a second AI - Aspirational India. He added that when the world was mired in uncertainty, India emerged as a beacon of hope. The Prime Minister further said that in just 125 days of the NDA government's third term, infrastructure projects worth nine lakh crore rupees have been approved, and 15 new Vande Bharat trains have been launched.

HOMAGE

On Police Commemoration Day yesterday, Prime Minister Narendra Modi honoured the bravery and sacrifice of the country's police personnel. In a social media post, he praised their unwavering dedication to ensuring the safety of the people. He said that they exemplify courage and determination. Mr Modi also commended the proactive efforts and assistance of police personnel during humanitarian challenges. Home Minister Amit Shah bowed to the martyrs immortalized by their supreme sacrifices in the line of duty. In a social media post, Mr Shah said, this is an occasion that honours the infinite sacrifices the police personnel and their families make to keep the nation safe. Mr Shah laid a wreath at the National Police Memorial in New Delhi.

POLICE

Joining the rest of the country, Nagaland observed the Police Commemoration Day yesterday. The solemn occasion was marked by a ceremonial parade at the Police Headquarters at Kohima, to pay rich tributes to police personnel who had laid down their lives in the line of duty. Director General of Nagaland Police, Rupin Sharma led police personnel in laying wreaths in homage to 214 police personnel from across India who had sacrificed their lives in the line of duty in service of the nation.

DAY

The South West Garo Hills District Police in Meghalaya observed Police Commemoration Day at the office premises of the Superintendent of Police yesterday to honour the ultimate sacrifice of police personnel who lost their lives in the line of duty. The event featured a parade, gun salute, and the laying of wreaths as tributes to the martyrs. Superintendent of Police, Billy Graham Marak highlighted the significance of the day, reflecting on the tragic events of 1959 when a Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) patrol was ambushed by Chinese forces in Ladakh, resulting in the deaths of ten Indian policemen. He stressed the importance of remembering the sacrifices made by law enforcement officers to ensure the safety and security of the nation.

ROADS

Several villages in the Mawhati constituency in Meghalaya, long burdened by poor road conditions, are celebrating the approval of funds for road blacktopping. Residents have faced significant challenges due to the deteriorating infrastructure, and the recent announcement comes as a relief. Many have expressed their appreciation for the efforts of local MLA Charles Marngar, who took the initiative to secure funding from the government to address these pressing issues. Among the villages that will soon benefit from the road improvements are Umkra, Mawatari, Thaiang, Syntumaw, and Pdeng Nongrim.

ITANAGAR

The army, in collaboration with the Government of Arunachal Pradesh and North Eastern Electric Power Corporation Limited organized a cycling expedition from Namsai to Namti, commencing a month-long commemoration of 62nd Walong Day from yesterday. Deputy Chief Minister Chowna Mein flagged off the three-day cycling expedition at the Golden Pagoda at Namsai to ride through Wakro, the holy site of Parshuram Kund, vibrant village of Hayuliang and finally finish at Namti, also known as the ‘Tigers Mouth’. The expedition will provide opportunity for all participants to pay homage to the brave soldiers who had made the ultimate sacrifice in the service of the nation. During the course of their journey, the cyclists will interact with the locals while enjoying the mesmerizing beauty of the Lohit Valley.
