

REGIONAL NEWS UNIT, ITANAGAR

TIME: 7:50 PM

DURATION: 5 MINTS

DATE: 15/11/2024

Prime Minister Narendra Modi today inaugurated and laid the foundation stone for multiple development projects worth over 6,600 crore rupees on the occasion of commemoration of the Janjatiya Gaurav Divas in Bihar. He also launched the 150th Birth Anniversary Year celebrations of Dharti Aaba Bhagwan Birsa Munda. Mr Modi also inaugurated an exhibition based on the life of Bhagwan Birsa Munda and rich tribal heritage and culture. He also inaugurated two Tribal Freedom Fighters' Museums and two Tribal Research Institutes which are intended to preserve the rich history and heritage of tribal communities.

Governor KT Parnaik participated in the 4th Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas celebration at Golden Jubilee Banquet Hall, Itanagar today. The Governor paid floral tribute to Bhagwan Birsa Munda and extended warm greetings to all citizens. As part of the nationwide celebration, the Governor felicitated exemplary tribal personalities, Padma Shree Awardee and traditional herbal healer, Yanung Jamoh Lego, National Vayu Shrestha Samman Awardee and Chairman of Deepak Nabam Living Home, Deepak Nabam, Ustaad Bhismillah Khan National Awardee Dr Delong Padung and renowned singer and All India Shekhar Choudhary Awardee, Taba Yall Nabam on the occasion. He also distributed agricultural equipment to prominent tribal agriculturists on the occasion.

The 150th birth anniversary of Veer Birsa Munda was commemorated with great reverence and enthusiasm at the Veer Birsa Munda Auditorium, Kumari Adivasi as part of the Janjatiya Gaurav Divas celebrations in Lekang, Namsai today. This event honored the invaluable contributions of tribal communities to India's history, culture, and freedom struggle, while paying tribute to the legendary tribal leader and freedom fighter, Veer Birsa Munda. Expressing his gratitude to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Deputy chief minister Chowna Mein said that it's the BJP led NDA Govt. that has recognized the vital role tribal leaders like Veer Birsa Munda played in India's freedom struggle and their efforts in safeguarding indigenous traditions. In his keynote address, Dy CM highlighted the significance of Veer Birsa Munda's legacy, stating "Veer Birsa Munda's courage, vision, and steadfast commitment to the upliftment of his people remain a beacon of hope for all.

MONDURO 4.0, the Tawang cycling race which had begun on November 9 concluded yesterday. Organised by the Tawang Cycling Association, this year's event brought together over 50 elite riders from 7 countries showcasing the unparalleled beauty and adventure of Tawang's landscapes. MONDURO is recognized as the only Enduro race in India and the highest Enduro race in the world, making it a premier event in the mountain biking calendar. This year it is also a part of the Prestigious Asia Enduro Series. MONDURO 4.0 not only promoted mountain biking as a sport but also showcased Tawang as a prime destination for adventure tourism.

Chief Secretary Manish Kumar Gupta chaired the second sitting of the State Level Executive Committee (SLEC) meeting yesterday. During the meeting, the committee approved and recommended proposals for the construction of teacher accommodation quarters at 4 Eklavya Model Residential Schools. These schools are located in East Kameng, Kurung Kumey, Tirap and Leparada districts. The total estimated cost for these projects is 720 lakh rupees, which will be submitted to the Ministry of Tribal Affairs, Government of India, for consideration and sanction under Article 275(1) of the Constitution.

Minister for Agriculture and Allied Departments, Gabriel D Wangsu conducted a comprehensive review meeting with officers in Likabali, Lower Siang district yesterday and assessed the needs and progress in the agriculture and horticulture sectors. Wangsu stressed on the importance of identifying genuinely motivated farmers having adequate land and resources to make full use of available schemes, emphasizing that these beneficiaries must be capable of executing projects effectively. Interacting with the officers, Wangsu highlighted the need for proper incentivization to encourage greater participation in farming, especially among young people to address the growing concern of unemployment.

The 6th edition of Arunachal Literature Festival 2024 concluded at the DK Convention Centre in Itanagar today. The three day festival, hosted by the Directorate of Information and Public Relations (DIPR) received positive response and huge participation from the festival goers.

The Arunachal Pradesh Public Service Commission has officially announced that the Preliminary Examination for the Arunachal Pradesh Public Service Combined Competitive Examination-2024 (APPSCCE-2024) will proceed as scheduled on December 15, 2024.

The Commission said, with this statement it aims to dispel rumours and clarify any confusion regarding a possible postponement.