President Droupadi Murmu today emphasised the need to adopt Nation First approach by all citizens to become a developed nation. Addressing the 4th edition of Lok Manthan, in Hyderabad, the President emphasised that all citizens must understand the country's cultural and intellectual heritage and strengthen our invaluable traditions.

Stating that the diversity provides a rainbow of beauty to the country's fundamental unity, the President said the feeling of national unity has kept the country united despite many challenges. President Murmu recalled that efforts have been made for centuries to divide and weaken the Indian society. She stated that artificial distinctions could not break the natural unity and citizens instilled with the spirit of Indianess have kept the torch of national unity lighting. The President recalled how the influence of Indian ideology has spread far and wide in the world since ancient times, and the entire world appreciated India's religious beliefs, art, music, technology, medical systems, language, and literature.

The Nagaland Pradesh Congress Committee, NPCC today raised serious concerns regarding an indictment by the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) against Indian billionaire Gautam Adani and his associates. Addressing a press conference in Dimapur, NPCC Communication Department, Yanger Longkumer said that according to the SEC's report, Adani and his associates are accused of bribing officials in five Indian states, amounting to 2,000 crore rupees. The states involved include Chhattisgarh, Odisha, Tamil Nadu, Jammu and Kashmir, and Andhra Pradesh, spanning from 2020 to 2024.

Mr Longkumer voiced concerns about the independence of Indian regulatory bodies like the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), suggesting that they may not have been proactive in investigating these allegations, unlike when they target opposition leaders. Demanding a Joint Parliamentary Committee investigation into the matter, the Congress said that if the ruling BJP and Prime Minister Modi have nothing to hide, they should allow a full investigation to uncover the truth.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah today said that the government has a policy of “zero tolerance” against crime, and any kind of laxity in the law and order situation of Delhi is not acceptable. He said this while holding a meeting with Delhi Police to review the law and order situation. Mr. Shah pointed out that it is the personal responsibility of each and every policeman to make Delhiites feel completely safe. He added that the safety of children, women, and senior citizens should be the priority of Delhi Police.
