

NORTH EAST NEWS BULLETIN

DATED:-03.12.2024

HEADLINES:-

- Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma invites Prime Minister Narendra Modi to attend the Assam Investor and Infrastructure Summit and Mega Jhumur Performance in February 2025.
- The Committee on Petitions and the House Committee of the Karnataka Legislative Assembly hold a joint meeting with their counterparts from the Meghalaya Legislative Assembly in Shillong.
- Foundation Day of neighbouring Assam and Nagaland observed at Raj Bhavan in Shillong.
- Vice chancellor in-charge of North Eastern Hill University Prof. Nirmalemdu Saha will convene a meeting of the Academic Council to decide on the need to resume the classes.
- Nagaland Government holds a round table conference with partner countries and states of the 25th edition of the Hornbill Festival at the Bamboo Hall in Kisama.

SARMA

Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma met Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi yesterday. In a social media post, Mr Sarma said that he received the guidance of the Prime Minister on various developmental issues. On behalf of the people of Assam, Mr Sarma also invited Mr Modi to attend the Assam Investor and Infrastructure Summit and Mega Jhumur Performance in February 2025.

COMMITTEE

The Committee on Petitions and the House Committee of the Karnataka Legislative Assembly held a joint meeting with their counterparts from the Meghalaya Legislative Assembly at Hotel Vivanta, Shillong yesterday. The meeting was chaired by Meghalaya Deputy Speaker Timothy D. Shira and Karnataka Deputy Speaker Rudrappa Manappa Lamani, who also serves as the Chairman of the Committee on Petitions and the House Committee. The event was attended by members of both the committees of the Meghalaya Legislative Assembly and Karnataka Legislative Assembly, and senior officials from the Assembly Secretariats of both states.

FOUNDATION

The Foundation Day of neighbouring Assam and Nagaland was observed at Raj Bhavan, Shillong yesterday. Meghalaya Governor CH Vijayashankar while speaking on the occasion said that Assam and Nagaland are the jewels of the North East India with rich tradition and culture. Stating that both the states have contributed immensely to the growth of the nation, the Governor said that these states are shining examples of India's rich diversity. On the occasion, the Governor also unveiled the Khasi translated books by Prabhat Kanti Pal on Bhagvad Gita and Geetanjali, which were written by Rabindranath Tagore. Officials of the Defence forces, residents of Assam and Nagaland were also present on the occasion.

NEHU

Vice chancellor in-charge of North Eastern Hill University (NEHU) Prof Nirmalemdu Saha yesterday informed that the Vice chancellor Prof Prabha Shankar Shukla has extended his leave from November 30 to December 13. Prof Shukla has extended his leave following protests and pending of the inquiry into the alleged mismanagement and administrative failures within the university. It may be mentioned that the Ministry of Education has granted 15 days extension to the two-member committee to submit its probe report into the allegations of mismanagement and administrative failures in the North Eastern Hill University. Meanwhile, Vice chancellor in-charge Prof Nirmalemdu Saha informed that he would immediately convene a meeting of the Academic Council to decide on the need to resume the classes.

FESTIVAL

Nagaland Government yesterday held a round table conference with partner countries and states of the 25th edition of the Hornbill Festival at the Bamboo Hall in Kisama. The conference was chaired by Chairman of the Investment & Development Authority of Nagaland and Advisor to the Chief Minister, Abu Metha. He highlighted the importance of the round table as a platform for fostering partnerships, strengthening ties, and networking among participants. Metha encouraged the visiting dignitaries to move beyond the cultural and traditional aspects of the festival and delve into the economic opportunities that Nagaland has to offer. During the discussion, Ambassador of Peru to India, Javier Manuel Paulinich Velarde, emphasized the significance of people-to-people connections between the Republic of Peru and the Nagas, highlighting their shared cultural and traditional similarities.

IIM

The Business Leadership Summit-2024 followed by the prestigious The Governor's Cup which was held this year in association with IIM Shillong Golf Season 15 concluded yesterday. The event was graced by Governor of Meghalaya Shri C H Vijayashankar at Shillong Golf Course.

The three day events brought together industry leaders, innovators, and corporate strategists from across the country. The summit and golf event highlighted the institute's dedication to fostering leadership excellence and shaping future-ready leaders in a rapidly evolving world.

*****