The state foundation day of Manipur, Meghalaya, and Tripura was celebrated at Raj Bhavan, Kohima yesterday. Speaking on the occasion, Governor of Nagaland, La Ganesan, said the day is of great pride and reflection, adding that it marks the establishment of these three states as distinct entities in 1972, each with its unique identity, history and contributions to our great nation. Stating that the Northeastern region is a jewel in India's crown, Mr Ganesan said, its vibrant communities and natural beauty have always been a source of pride for the entire nation. The Governor further highlighted the role of the people from the three states who have made Nagaland their home. He said that their active participation in various fields—be it education, business, arts or social service—has strengthened the fabric of the society and exemplified the essence of "Unity in Diversity" that defines India. The Governor further urged all to remember one's own shared responsibility towards building a brighter future for our region.
