

REGIONAL ENGLISH NEWS BULLETIN

Time: 7:50pm

Duration: 5 Minutes

24.03.2025

Governor, Lt. General KT Parnaik (Retd.) participated in a One-Day Seminar on the 'Military History of the North Eastern Region' at the Department of History, Rajiv Gandhi University today. In his address, the Governor emphasized the significance of the seminar in understanding the evolution of the Northeast region, particularly in the post-independence era. He highlighted how the approach of the British and the armed forces toward this region differed from their strategies in the rest of the country. He stressed the need for a multifaceted approach to addressing security challenges, including winning the hearts and minds of the people, avoiding collateral damage to civilians, and ensuring strict adherence to human rights. The Governor, who is the Chief Rector of RGU, commended the Vice Chancellor and his team for organizing this important seminar. A total of 13 research papers were presented during the seminar.

Chairman of the State Environment Impact Assessment Authority of Arunachal Pradesh, Dr. U. Prakashan, IFS (Retd.) and Chairman of the State Expert Appraisal Committee, Dr. Prakash N. Thirumali called on Chief Secretary, Manish Gupta at Itanagar today. Later in the day, the Chief Secretary in a social media post said that, as the state strives for a balanced and sustainable approach to development. Their expertise and leadership are highly anticipated to strengthen our environmental assessments, ensuring that development aligns with ecological preservation and long-term environmental sustainability, the CS added.

Team Arunachal has brought Home 13 medals in the recently concluded IIS Sangai Cup 2025 held in Imphal, Manipur from 15th-18th March last. In response to the achievement, Chief Minister Pema Khandu in a social media post today, congratulated Team Arunachal and said that it is a proud moment for the state. Khandu further informed that the team has brought 13 medals which include 3 Gold, 4 Silver and 6 Bronze. In the meantime, the CM has lauded the medalists and participants for their dedication and hard work.

Deputy Chief Minister Chowna Mein has stressed that the Chief Minister Arogya Arunachal Yojana (CMAAY) continues to ensure cashless treatment for families, making quality medical care accessible to all. Sharing the news via a social media post today, Mein informed that Mrs. Rubu Yam Nada from Ziro, Lower Subansiri, experienced this firsthand. Through CMAAY, she received timely medical assistance without any financial strain. Such stories highlight the real impact of this initiative, he added. In the meantime, the Deputy CM has encouraged all eligible citizens to enroll in CMAAY and safeguard their health and future.

The first Seva Apke Dwar 2.0 camp for the financial year 2024-25 was successfully conducted at Government Secondary School, Kyidphel under Tawang district today. Speaking on the occasion, MLA Tawang, Namgey Tsering lauded Chief Minister Pema Khandu and his government for initiating Seva Apke Dwar camps, which bring essential government services to the doorsteps of villagers in remote areas. During the camp, MLA Tawang distributed smart boards, games and sports equipment, and other stationery items for government schools in Kyidphel Circle. Additionally, essential items such as electronic weighing machines for fair price shops under the Food and Civil Supplies Department, plastic fruit crates under the Horticulture Department, vegetable seeds, and soil health cards for farmers were provided. A total of 575 villagers benefitted from various services provided during the event.

The District Health Society, Upper Siang observed the World TB Day 2025 with the theme 'Yes, We Can End TB-Commit, Invest, Deliver' at District Hospital Yingkiong today. At Damro in the backdrop of 'Seva Aapke Dwar', a pledge on TB Harega, Desh Jeetega was taken by all participants, led by the Deputy Commissioner, Upper Siang, Talo Jerang. On the occasion, NTEP team and CC-TI conducted free TB/HIV/ Syphilis Screening. At the District HQ the event was organised at the Conference Hall of District Hospital Yingkiong. Similarly, a pledge on TB Harega, Desh Jeetega was taken by all participants.

The District Administration Upper Siang conducted the 1st Seva Aapke Dwar 2.0 at Damro village today. The camp was inaugurated by Deputy Commissioner, Upper Siang District, Talo Jerang in presence of Mariyang ZPM and other dignitaries. On the occasion, the DC distributed Self propelled Farm Machinery to the beneficiaries of Mission Integrated Development of Horticulture 2024-25 implemented by the Horticulture Department, Yingkiong. A total of 539 people from Damro, Mariyang and Milang villages benefitted from the various services provided by 20 departments on the spot.

That's all, in this news bulletin, Namaskar