

Morning News Script

0730 hrs

8th March 2025

<><><><><>

International Women's Day is being celebrated across the nation today. It is a special day dedicated to honouring women's achievements, raising awareness about gender equality, and advocating for a fairer society. This year's theme "For ALL Women and Girls: Rights. Equality. Empowerment" highlights the importance of creating a world where every woman and girl has equal opportunities, rights, and the power to shape her future

Nagaland also joins in celebrating International Women's Day today. Several programmes are being held across the districts commemorating the day. Akashvani News Kohima wishes all women a happy international Women's Day.

<><><><><>

President Droupadi Murmu has extended her greetings to the people on the occasion . In her message, President Murmu said, women are the foundation of the family, society and the nation and they have successfully carved out their identities in diverse fields, despite facing adversities and challenges.

<><><><><>

Governor of Nagaland, La Ganesan, has emphasized that music, dance, and storytelling are powerful tools that unite the nation, transcending regional differences and fostering a sense of brotherhood and national pride. Speaking at the Bharat Ko Jano' programme held at Rajiv Gandhi University in Doimukh, Arunachal Pradesh, yesterday, the Governor said these cultural expressions are a reflection of the country's collective aspiration for harmony and progress. Highlighting the cultural richness of the North Eastern region, Governor Ganesan noted that it has always been a melting pot of various traditions, languages, and customs.

He also stressed the importance of preserving these traditions for future generations and building a future rooted in respect and collective growth

<><><><><>

Advisor for Information and Public Relations and Soil and Water Conservation, Imkong L Imchen, has expressed concern over the ongoing sit-in protest by student bodies demanding the upgradation of Khelhoshe Polytechnic Atoizu (KPA). He urged the government to expedite the process, stating that the matter should not be prolonged any further. Speaking during Zero Hour of the ongoing sixth session of the 14th Nagaland Legislative Assembly yesterday, Mr Imchen recalled that the cabinet in December 2007, agreed upon to upgrade the institution into a full-fledged engineering college. He however, added that, despite this decision, the government has yet to issue the official notification required for the upgradation. Mr Imchen urged the state government to take immediate action to implement its decision and complete the necessary formalities to establish the engineering college without further delay.

IMKONG BYTE :-

Highlighting the historical significance of KPA, he stressed that upgrading the institution would be a fitting tribute to the legacy of Khelhoshe, the first Naga Minister and Deputy Minister in the Assam government, after whom the institution was named.

<><><><><>

Member of Parliament, Rajya Sabha, S. Phangnon Konyak, paid an official visit to the Jan Aushadhi Kendra at the District Hospital in Mon district on the occasion of Jan Aushadhi Diwas. During the visit, she interacted with department officials and received a firsthand report on the operations of the Jan Aushadhi Kendra. Ms. Konyak also engaged with beneficiaries, encouraging them to take advantage of the affordable generic medicines and hygiene products available under the Pradhan Mantri Bhartiya Janaushadhi Pariyojana.

The MP urged the public to spread awareness about the initiative through social media and other platforms to help more people access affordable, high-quality and low cost medicines at Jan Aushadhi Kendras.

<><><><><>