The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) has launched a new online portal — conference.epolclearance.gov.in — to streamline the process of granting political clearances to foreign nationals participating in conferences, seminars, workshops, and sporting events held in India. The portal, developed as part of the Digital India Mission, aims to reduce processing times and make the entire process fully online and user-friendly. The MEA has urged all government departments, autonomous institutions, and private organizers to adopt and promote the portal, and has invited feedback for further improvement.
