

REGIONAL ENGLISH NEWS BULLETIN

Time: 7:50pm

Duration: 5 Minutes

28.06.2025

Arunachal Pradesh's Department of Industries organized a high-impact Investment and Entrepreneurship Workshop in Itanagar today. It focused on the Uttar Poorva Transformative Industrialisation Scheme 2024, including flagship components like UNNATI, and other industrial investment initiatives. Speaking on the occasion, Chief Secretary Manish Gupta emphasized the state's shifting role from a consumer to a producer economy. He said 900 crore rupees in central funding has been allocated to boost industrial growth and support entrepreneurship in the state. State's Minister for Industries, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship, Nyato Dukam urged stakeholders to actively utilize the available schemes and said a thousand crore fund is a massive opportunity. He invited all aspiring entrepreneurs to come forward and make the best use of it.

Byte - Nyato Dukam (40 Secs)

The Graduation Ceremony of 2019 MBBS Batch of Tomo Riba Institute of Health and Medical Sciences (TRIHMS) was held at the Institution's premises in Naharlagun today. 46 students, including 29 from Arunachal Pradesh, have graduated in the batch. Attending the function as chief guest, Governor Lt. Gen. K.T. Parnaik (Retd.) said that TRIHMS has rapidly emerged as a hub for education, innovation, and service in the state. He appreciated the institution for shaping the next generation of medical professionals. Dean and Principal, TRIHMS, Dr. Shyamal Bhattacharya, administered the Oath to the graduating students.

Governor Lt. General K.T. Parnaik (Retd.), visited Oju Mission School, Papu Nallah, Naharlagun today. During the visit, he toured the newly constructed academic block, inspected the smart classroom facilities and viewed student projects. To mark the occasion, the Governor and the First Lady also took part in a plantation programme under the theme 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam' within the school campus.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will share his thoughts with the people of the country and abroad in the Mann Ki Baat programme on Akashvani tomorrow at 11 AM. It will be the 123rd episode of the monthly radio programme. The programme will be broadcast across the entire Akashvani and Doordarshan network, AIR News website, and NewsOnAir mobile app.

Smt. Gumpi Nguso Lombi, Hindi Officer at Rajiv Gandhi University, has been conferred with the National Folk Literature Award 2025 during a ceremony held at Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh today. The award is jointly presented by the Government Central Library, Gwalior and the Gwalior Sahitya Sansthan. The award acknowledges Smt. Lombi's contributions to the promotion of Hindi language, and her work in preserving and promoting India's folk literary traditions. She is also noted for being the first Hindi Officer from Arunachal Pradesh.

The Bharatiya Mazdoor Sangh, Arunachal Pradesh Unit, in collaboration with the Arunachal Pradesh Building and Other Construction Workers Union, organized a mass gathering at the Tennis Court, IG Park, Itanagar, yesterday, to express solidarity against the recent murder of a daily wage labourer named Prabash Doley in Itanagar. In a memorandum submitted to Chief Minister Pema Khandu, the Union has demanded death compensation for the parents of the deceased and called for strict punishment for the accused.

The India Meteorological Department has issued a yellow alert for 17 districts in Arunachal Pradesh. It has informed that heavy to very heavy rainfall is very likely at isolated places in these districts in the next 24 hours.

A Financial Literacy cum Insurance Mobilization Awareness Camp was organized by the Moneywise Centre for Financial Literacy, Basar, in collaboration with the District Mission Management Unit, Basar, under the Arunachal State Rural Livelihoods Mission at Bam village today. The programme was conducted by consultants from the Crisil Foundation and witnessed participation from key stakeholders. Over 70 women from 22 SHGs of Bam village participated in the camp.

That's all in this news bulletin, Namaskar