External Affairs Minister Dr S Jaishankar has warned Islamabad on cross-border terrorism, saying New Delhi will strike deep into Pakistan if provoked by terrorist attacks. He asserted that there will be retribution against the terrorist outfits and their leadership in case of barbaric acts like the recent Pahalgam attack. Dr. Jaishankar, who is currently visiting Europe, stated this in an interview with an American political digital newspaper. Addressing the Indian community representatives of Luxembourg and Belgium, Dr. Jaishankar again warned that India will retaliate against terrorism, regardless of its location in Pakistan.
