As a run-up to International Day of Yoga 2025, Akashvani News Kohima brings you a special series - "Practice Yoga for Good Health and Wellness." Each day, we explore a new aspect of Yoga to help energize your body, calm your mind, and uplift your spirit. Today morning , we will learn about Bandhas and Mudras

UNDERPLAY: Bandhas and Mudras are practices associated with Prāṇāyāma. They are viewed as the higher yogic practices that mainly adopt certain physical gestures along with control over respiration. This further facilitates control over mind and paves way for higher Yogic attainment. However, practice of dhyāna, which moves one towards self-realisation and leads one to transcendence, is considered the essence of Yoga Sādhana. We will know more on the Śatkarmas practice in our next series.
