

Morning News Script

0730 hrs of 23rd July, 2025

||<><>||

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will be embarking on a two-nation visit to the United Kingdom and Maldives today . In the first leg, Mr Modi will travel to United Kingdom on a two-day visit. Briefing media in New Delhi yesterday , Foreign Secretary Vikram Misri said, Mr Modi will hold discussions with his British counterpart Keir Starmer and call on King Charles III.

In the second leg of his two-nation tour, the Prime Minister will travel to Maldives on Friday for a two-day visit. Prime Minister Modi will be the 'Guest of Honour' at the celebrations of the 60th anniversary of Independence of Maldives on Saturday.

||<><>||

Union Minister of Communications and Development of North Eastern Region (DONER) Jyotiraditya Scindia yesterday highlighted the Northeast's immense potential to spearhead India's sustainable fashion revolution. The Minister said this while virtually participating in a high-level task force meeting focused on strengthening the handloom and handicrafts sector in Northeast. Echoing Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of Fashion for Environment and Empowerment, Mr Scindia said that with its rich legacy of eco-friendly practices, artisanal expertise, and exceptional craftsmanship, the region is uniquely positioned to lead the transition to green, inclusive fashion on a global scale. During the meeting, the Union minister unveiled a transformative plan for the sector, emphasizing modernization through infrastructure upgrades, digital and design integration, and skill development.

||<><>||

The Niuland district administration has urged all the villages to remain vigilant against influx of illegal immigrants due to the ongoing eviction drive carried out by Assam government against the illegal immigrants. Deputy Commissioner Niuland in an order stated that any unusual movement and migration within the district that shares a border with Assam to be reported to the district administration.

||<><>||

The Legal Services Clinic (LSC) was launched yesterday in Losami Village, of Phek district. This marks the fifth Legal Services Clinic under the Phek District Legal Services Authority , following previous inaugurations at Meluri, Pfutsero, District Jail Phek, and Chetheba. District and Sessions Judge cum Chairperson Phek DLSA, Mezivolu T. Therieh spoke on the concept of Legal Services Clinics. She also referred to Article 39A of the Constitution of India, emphasizing the constitutional mandate to provide free legal aid to ensure justice for all, irrespective of economic or social barriers. Deputy Commissioner of Phek, Rhosietho Ngouri, emphasised the value of LSCs in enhancing access to justice in rural areas.

||<><>||

With an objective of promoting the adoption of sustainable farming practices, a training on vermi-composting and natural farming was held at KrishiVigyan Kendra (KVK) Dimapur yesterday, The event was organized by KVK Dimapur, under the ICAR Research Complex for NEH Region, Nagaland Centre, Jharnapani. Senior Scientist & Head, KVK Dimapur. Dr.Phool Kumari shared insights into the ongoing extension and outreach activities of the KVK and emphasized the significance of such exposure visits in bridging the gap between theory and practice in agriculture.

||<><><>||

In a dazzling display of grace, poise, and talent, 19-year-old Ms. Bendangienla was crowned Miss Mokokchung 2025 at a glittering ceremony held at the Town Hall, Mokokchung, last evening. The event saw Temsulila Lkr , 23 , clinch the title of 1st Runner-up, while Putusenla 22 was named 2nd Runner-up.

A total of 13 contestants vied for the coveted crown, competing in three spectacular rounds — ethnic wear, designer cocktail wear, and evening gown. This year’s pageant marked a grand comeback after a three-year hiatus, much to the excitement of pageant enthusiasts and the local community.

||<><><>||