

REGIONAL ENGLISH NEWS BULLETIN

Time:7:50pm

Duration: 5 Minutes

27.09.2025

Prime Minister Narendra Modi today inaugurated and laid the foundation stone of multiple development projects worth over sixty thousand crore rupees in Jharsuguda, Odisha. These projects span various sectors, including telecommunications, railways, higher education, healthcare, skill development, and rural housing sectors, among others. PM Modi also flagged off Amrit Bharat Express between Odisha's Berhampur and Udhna at Surat in Gujarat. In his address, Mr. Modi shared that the central government has recently approved two semiconductor units for Odisha, and a semiconductor park will also be constructed in the state, representing a significant step in advancing Odisha's industrial and technological growth. The PM also launched over 97,500 new 4G mobile towers established by BSNL, including 92,600 with the latest 4G technology. He said, India will become the global hub of telecom technology in the future.

PM Narendra Modi will share his thoughts in the Mann Ki Baat program on All India Radio tomorrow at 11 am. This will be the 126th episode of this monthly radio program. The program will be broadcast live on the entire network of All India Radio and Doordarshan, the website of All India Radio News and the News on Mobile App. It will also be broadcast live on the YouTube channels of All India Radio News, Doordarshan News, Prime Minister's Office and Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.

The Department of Tourism, Tawang, today joined the global observance of World Tourism Day, highlighting the importance of sustainable tourism for the region. Deputy Commissioner Tawang, Namgyal Angmo appealed for the growth of tourism in a dignified manner, avoiding the drawbacks of mass tourism, and instead strengthening eco-friendly, community-driven initiatives and preserving the region for the future generation. She called upon promoting rural unexplored places of the district. that even the remotest villages benefit from tourism. On the occasion certificates were distributed to Homestay Owners' Convention participants, The Capacity Building Course for Tourism stakeholder Trainees. A book was also launched "Threads of Destiny: The Saga of Mandralgang and Pemachen" authored by Koncho Teering, Nursing officer, KDS District Hospital Tawang.

In Lower Siang District, as part of the Swachhata Hi Seva – 2025 campaign, the “Ek Din Ek Ghanta Ek Saath” programme was conducted yesterday at the Veterinary Complex, Likabali. The programme also featured the “Ek Phed Maa Ke Naam” initiative. Both activities highlighted the district’s commitment towards cleanliness, greenery, and community participation in building a healthier and more sustainable society. Arunachal Pradesh legislative assembly, Deputy Speaker, Kardo Nyigyor, and party functionaries of BJP of the district also participated.

The second phase of Community Volunteers Training on Basic Disaster Management was successfully conducted yesterday in the ADC Conference Hall, Jairampur, Changlang district. A total of 28 dedicated community volunteers registered for this phase, stepping forward to strengthen local preparedness and response capabilities. ADC Jairampur K. Tikhak and CO Millo Uttung participated in the programme and extended their encouragement and insights.

The Assam Rifles under Spear Corps organised a Workshop on "Mental Health and Substance Abuse" under the theme “Breaking the Silence Campaign”. The workshop was organised in collaboration with Hope Foundation District De-Addiction Centre at Arunachal University of Studies and Aid Care Trust Support Organisation at Namsai, Arunachal Pradesh.

The District Health Society, Lohit District, under the National TB Elimination Programme, organized the District TB Forum and District TB-Comorbidity Committee Meeting yesterday at the Mini Secretariat, DC Office, Tezu. The meeting was chaired by Sotaillum Bellai, SDO Tezu, in the presence of Dr. C.L. Manchay, DMO Lohit, along with other officials and stakeholders. The session was organized to review ongoing strategies, address TB and related comorbidities, and strengthen collective efforts towards achieving the goal of TB-free Lohit district.

A two-week long Yoga training programme organized by The Indian Army’s Spear Corps, for its soldiers from 15th September onwards, concluded today, at Aalo, west siang district, Arunachal Pradesh. The programme was designed to enhance the holistic well-being of soldiers by combining physical endurance with mental resilience through the timeless discipline of Yoga.

The Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar Health Camp at Community Health Centre, Geku, Upper Siang district, was held yesterday. The camp was inaugurated by ZPM Nyong Panyang. A total of One Hundred Twenty Three beneficiaries availed services, which included Malaria screening, Oral Cancer, TB, HIV, Ayushman Bharat Health Account enrollment and more. Meanwhile, One Hundred students participated in a Blood donation awareness programme at JNV Geku.

The Meteorological Centre of Itanagar has issued Yellow Alert for East Kameng, Papumpare and Anjaw district of Arunachal Pradesh. MCI has predicted thunderstorm with lightning is very likely at isolated places.

That's all in this news bulletin, Namaskar