

REGIONAL NEWS UNIT, ITANAGAR

Time:7:50pm

Duration: 5 Minutes

25.11.2025

Prime Minister Narendra Modi participated in a state-level function organized in Kurukshetra of Haryana to commemorate the 350th martyrdom day of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji, Hind Di Chadar. He paid respect to Sri Guru Granth Sahib and later visited the exhibition organized to commemorate the 350th martyrdom day of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji. Mr. Modi also released a special coin and commemorative stamp marking the 350th Shaheedi Diwas of revered Guru.

Bharat-Tibet Sahyog Manch leaders led by National Organization General Secretary of the Forum, Pankaj Goyal, is on pilgrimage visit to Bumla pass, international border, bordering China. While returning from Bumla Pass of the 14th Tawang pilgrimage organized by Indo-Tibet Sahyog Manch, Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister Pema Khandu feliciated the team leaders and thanked all the tourist from across the country under the leadership of Pankaj Goel to Bumla, Tawang and Arunachal Pradesh.

The result of Arunachal Pradesh Teacher Eligibility Test - APTET 2023 has been officially declared today. The State Council of Educational Research and Training, Itanagar, conducted the APTET 2023 on 23 November 2025 across designated examination centres. Candidates may check their results through the following official websites: www.arunachaltet.in or www.scertarunachal.nic.in

Dr. Tai Nyori, Former Registrar and Controller of Examinations at Rajiv Gandhi University passed away last night. He was the first NEFA candidate to qualify the B.A and M.A. History Honours and enter teaching profession as lecturer. He was also the first Arunachalee to qualify the Ph.D. in History subject in 1988. He joined Rajiv Gandhi University in 1990, first as Controller of Examinations, and as Registrar. For his pioneering services in the field of education and academic administration, he was awarded the Glory of India Gold Medal and Vijay Rattan Award by New Delhi based social organizations and from the Department of Higher education, Government of Arunachal Pradesh. Besides, Dr. Nyori was the founder President of the Indigenous Faith and Cultural Society of Arunachal Pradesh (IFCSAP) when it was formed in 1999. His research work on History and Culture of the Adis has been well received by the scholars of the country and abroad. He has published and presented more than 50 research papers in several journals and seminars and conferences.

Dibang Valley District today formally commenced the first session of the Training Programme for Presiding Officers and Polling Officers ahead of the Panchayat Election 2025, at the DC's Conference Hall, for the smooth conduct of the upcoming electoral exercise. Addressing the participants, DC-cum-District Election Officer Bekir Nyorak underscored the gravity and sanctity of the electoral process, urging all officials to approach their duties with utmost diligence, integrity and professionalism. The training session featured detailed, hands-on demonstrations to 81 officials on critical aspects of election management. The modules included step-by-step polling procedures, proper handling and safeguarding of polling materials, meticulous documentation practices and the correct operation and sealing protocols of the Ballot Box.

The nomination process for the 2025 Pasighat Municipal Council Elections of East Siang District Panchayat Election concluded on Monday, with 27 candidates filed nomination papers for the eight councilor seats across 8 wards. The stage is now set for a competitive poll across Pasighat town for PMC seats.

Indian Army Trishakti Corps has commenced intensive AM_AR- Army Martial Arts Routine, training at altitudes exceeding 14,000 ft., significantly enhancing close-combat readiness in some of the most demanding operational zones along the Northern Borders. This training prepares soldiers to respond effectively even when conventional weapons are not immediately available. AMAR is a modern combat system that blends traditional Indian martial arts with globally proven close-combat techniques. The regimen covers bare hand engagements, weapon-based combat, stress response control, and comprehensive physical mental conditioning all critical for high-altitude operations.

The 3,103 Studio - a pottery studio based in Naharlagun, conducted a creative interactive webinar on "Art of Pottery as a Heritage of Arunachal Pradesh" to mark the celebration of World Heritage Week along with Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage - INTACH, Arunachal Chapter (Convenor Oken Tayeng, MLA) today at E-Sector in Naharlagun.

INTACH Arunachal Chapter Co-Convenor K. Lombi said Indigenous pottery of Arunachal Pradesh is much more than a traditional craft; it is a living mirror of who we are as people. Ultimately, to honor Arunachal's indigenous pottery is to honor our land, our elders, and our future – ensuring that the warmth of clay, fire and community continues to define the cultural heartbeat of our state.

Artist Jackie Bodo Mangrang, President of the Arunachal Academy of Fine Arts, is representing Arunachal Pradesh at the prestigious Akshaya Kalayatra-2: Poorab, a platform celebrating creativity, being held in Guwahati from today till 29 November 2025.

That's all, in this News Bulletin, Namaskar