

Morning News Script
0730 hrs
10th December 2025

<><><><><><>

In a major boost to female education in Tuli Sub-Division, the District Administration, Mokokchung, conducted a bicycle distribution programme yesterday. The initiative, titled "Pedaling towards a brighter future" aims to minimise commuting challenges faced by girl students from economically weaker sections.

<><><><><><>

The 26th edition of the Hornbill Festival, Nagaland's famed "Festival of Festivals," will conclude today with a grand closing ceremony at Unity Plaza, Naga Heritage Village, Kisama. The finale event is scheduled to begin at 5:00 PM, bringing to a close 10 days of cultural celebration, performances, and global participation. We have a report:

The Hornbill Festival, celebrated from December 1 to 10 each year, continues to be a major cultural showcase that draws visitors, promoting Nagaland's rich tribal heritage and global cultural engagement.

<><><><><><>

Nagaland Conservatory of Music has won first ever Nagaland Choir Games 2025, held as part of the 26th edition of Hornbill Festival in Kohima yesterday. Cantabile Choir and Harmonic Voices bagged 2nd and 3rd positions respectively. Lipokmar Tzudir was adjudged the Best conductor and Celestial Harmonies, Tseminyu won the Best Uniform choir team. The event was organised by Task Force for Music & Arts and Nagaland Tourism and managed by Nagaland Choir Games team.

<><><><><><>

Union Aviation Minister Ram Mohan Naidu yesterday said the disruption caused by IndiGo's recent operational failures is now rapidly stabilising and reiterated that the government is fully determined to build a robust airline system. Addressing the Lok Sabha on the ongoing IndiGo crisis, the Minister stated that IndiGo is being held fully accountable. The Minister further added that the Directorate General of Civil Aviation has issued notices to the airline, and based on its report, strict and appropriate action will be taken.

<><><><><><>

Today is National Human Rights Day. The theme for this year, "Human Rights – Our Everyday Essentials", . On the occasion, Chief Minister Neiphiu Rio emphasized the importance of recognising fundamental rights as integral to every individual. He noted that this year's theme serves as a reminder that human rights are not abstract idea but essential elements woven into daily life. The Chief Minister called upon all citizens to work towards building an egalitarian society where every individual's rights are upheld.

<><><><><><>

