DIALOUGE

The Department of Sports and Youth Affairs, Meghalaya, in collaboration with My Bharat Kendra, organised a Meet and Greet programme at Lok Bhavan, Shillong on Friday for youth delegates selected for the National Youth Festival – Viksit Bharat Young Leaders Dialogue 2026. Meghalaya Governor, C. H. Vijayashankar congratulated the delegates for qualifying through a rigorous national process and urged them to view leadership as a responsibility rooted in character, discipline and service. He encouraged the youth to use the national platform to contribute ideas towards Viksit Bharat. Meghalaya secured national-level representation in the Design for Bharat track through Nishant Kumar Singh and Necharika Singh of NIT Shillong, whose innovation, a Smart Braille Watch, supports visually impaired users. Overall, 25 youth from Meghalaya have been selected for the dialogue through a multi-stage process. The delegates will interact with Prime Minister Narendra Modi on 11 January during the 29th National Youth Festival, to be held in New Delhi.

GOVERNOR

Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister Pema Khandu on Friday called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General K. T. Parnaik, at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar. During the interaction, the Governor shared his broad vision for the state, emphasising a balanced and inclusive approach to development. He identified education, health, hydropower and tourism as the four key pillars—described as the “four wheels”— driving Arunachal Pradesh's progress. Stressing the importance of investing in the future, the Governor called for a strong focus on youth development and capacity building, in line with the national aspiration of Viksit Bharat@2047. He also apprised the Chief Minister of his recent engagements with the Vice President of India and the Chief of Defence Staff.

GST

Nagaland has reported the highest GST growth among all states in the country, with a 37 percent increase in collections for the period from April to December 2025, compared to the previous year. According to official data, the state's total GST collection reached 627 crore rupees during the period. This includes 234 crore rupees in Central GST, 293 crore rupees in State GST, and 100 crore rupees in Integrated GST. Meanwhile, the Central GST Commissionerate Dimapur highlighted that, as a consumer state with a limited industrial base, the destination-based nature of GST has redirected more tax revenue to Nagaland, enhancing its fiscal strength. It was also informed that efforts to educate the business community about timely and ethical tax practices, along with enhanced enforcement measures have helped boost GST compliance in the state.

ARREST

Senior BJP leader from Uttarakhand and former Rajya Sabha MP Tarun Vijay on Friday visited Janardanpara in Unakoti district of Tripura to express solidarity with the family of Angel Chakma, an MBA student who recently lost his life in Dehradun, Uttarakhand. During the visit, Tarun Vijay met victim's father, Tarun Prakash Chakma and younger brother Michael Chakma, who are observing religious rites at the local Jetban Buddhist Vihara. The former MP heard the family's account of the incident and subsequent developments in Dehradun, and conveyed his deep condolences over the untimely death. Local MLA Sambhu Lal Chakma accompanied the former MP. Speaking to media persons, Tarun Vijay said that people across Uttarakhand have strongly condemned the brutal killing and assured that justice would be delivered. Tarun Vijay also informed the family that five accused have already been arrested in connection with the incident while assuring that all those involved in the incident would be identified and arrested.

BOOK

Tripura Chief Minister, Manik Saha while inaugurating the 44th Agartala Book Fair at the Hapania International Fair Complex on Friday emphasised that books are a person's truest friends who never betray. Stating that reading nourishes the mind, he urged the younger generation to develop a strong reading habit to enhance self-confidence and knowledge, which ultimately benefits society. He described books as a bridge that leads people from ignorance to knowledge and from darkness to light. Comparing the Agartala Book Fair to a "Kumbh Mela" for litterateurs and book lovers, he encouraged people to revive the tradition of gifting books and underlined the need to preserve and restore heritage to build a "New Tripura." The 13-day book fair, one of the most prominent literary events in the region, features 183 stalls and offers a rich mix of activities, including cultural programmes, book releases, an art gallery and poetry symposiums.
