NEWS IN ORDER:-

WATER:

Amid rising concerns over drying springs and declining water discharge, Meghalaya's community-driven climate adaptation and water security initiatives have found mention in the Economic Survey 2025-26, Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma has said. The survey, tabled in Parliament by Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, highlighted Meghalaya's ecosystem-based and community-centric approach to addressing water security challenges. With initiatives like MegARISE, spring mapping, and community-based water harvesting, Meghalaya is protecting critical catchments. The state is restoring forests, and empowering local communities to adapt to climate change, strengthening water security for generations to come.

MIGRANTS:

Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma has expressed grief over the death of four migrant workers from the state near Bengaluru and said he would raise the matter with his Karnataka counterpart Siddaramaiah. The Assam government will also coordinate with Karnataka for bringing home the bodies of the four youths. Four migrant labourers from Assam were found dead at their rented accommodation in Sulibele area in Hoskote taluk in a suspected case of suffocation, police said on Saturday.

TRIPURA:

Chief Minister Manik Saha has said that the government is working with the objective of taking Tripura forward in the fields of education, culture, sports, industry and commerce. He stated that Tripura is steadily progressing on the path of development. The Chief Minister made these remarks after inaugurating and laying foundation stones for various development projects worth 58.78 crore rupees in South Tripura district yesterday. Some of the projects included newly constructed permanent buildings at Niharnagar School under Rajnagar Block of Belonia Sub-division and Ghosh Khamar School. The Chief Minister also virtually inaugurated the newly constructed building of Belonia English Medium School. Mr Saha said that Tripura has achieved a special position at the national level in terms of development and has received 347 awards for its achievements.

MIZORAM:

Mizoram Chief Electoral Officer, Lalrozama, has urged students to recognise the importance of country governance and actively participate in the democratic process by casting their votes. He was speaking after a National Voters' Day function at Government T. Romana College. Mr Lalrozama stated that legislators in the country are elected through the power of the vote, making it imperative for every eligible citizen to exercise their franchise. He emphasised that voting lies at the heart of democracy and has a direct impact on everyday life, influencing areas such as public safety, healthcare and the economy.

NAGALAND:

A total of 282 recruits, including 36 women, were formally inducted into the Assam Rifles at a ceremony in Nagaland's Chumoukedima district yesterday. An Attestation Parade was held at the Assam Rifles Training Centre and School, Sukhoi after the recruits successfully completed 44 weeks of rigorous training. Additional Director General of Assam Rifles, Major General J S Bainsla, reviewed the parade. He underscored the growing contribution of riflewomen, who have been inducted into frontline roles since 2015 and have performed with distinction in the Northeast, Jammu and Kashmir, United Nations missions, and Republic Day Parades. He emphasised that the inclusion of women in combat roles strengthens operational effectiveness and supports the vision of a women-empowered India.
